

Course search

The Advanced standing course search allows prospective students to enquire about possible course credit that may be awarded (in an ECU course) based on prior studies at Australian or international tertiary institutions.

You can start your search using the form below.

Select your country:

Select your institution:

Select your award/course:

Select an ECU course:

Advanced standing search results

Results that matched your search options above have been shown below. You can conduct another search by changing the form above.

Information listed below is only an indication of the possible advanced standing (credit transfer) granted for your course. This determination is based on the information provided and assumes you have completed your course. A formal determination of your advanced standing (credit transfer) status will be done at the time of enrolment. Further information is available through the links listed on this page.

Unspecified advanced standing:

Description	Number of credit points awarded
Credit toward first year units	60
Credit toward second year units	60

Achievement required

Level 1

Achievement Required: 60 Credit points equates to 4 x level 1 electives on completion of 2 years of this award

Level 2

Achievement Required: 60 Credit points equates to 4 x level 2 electives on completion of 2 years of this award

Total credit points required for ECU course: 360

Credit points granted: Up to a maximum of 120

Total credit points required to complete ECU course: Minimum of 240

ECU course duration (in years, based on full-time enrolment): 3.0

Years to complete ECU course (based on full-time enrolment): 2.0

Notes:

Students who complete the first 2 years of a 4 year degree at University of Shanghai for Science and Technology who then enrol in a 3 year degree at ECU in the same and/or different discipline can receive up to 1 year credit (8 units) into the nominated ECU course.